

Table of Content for a Policy Analysis

Focusing on municipal activities within overweight and obesity within children, young people and their families

Table of content

- 1) Background and structure of the analysis
 - a. Short common text about Pohefa and structure.
- 2) Design of the survey
 - a. Method and objective of the survey
 - b. Generation of data and information
 - i. Desk research (Where have you generated the data and information e.g. website of the municipality, official documents, statistics?)
 - ii. Interview with key personnel (Who has been interviewed?)
 - c. Analysis of data and information
- 3) Facts about the municipality
 - a. Administrative structure
 - b. Competence areas
 - c. Resources (Euro per citizen)
 - d. Capacity for action (Where and how is the municipality capable of creating action)
- 4) Analysis of the health policy and practices of the municipality
 - a. The overall definition of health within the municipality
 - b. Visions and objectives
 - c. Values
 - d. Areas of action
 - i. Planning of the activities (Who is involved, how and why?)
 - ii. Implementation of the activities (Who is involved, how and why?)
 - iii. Evaluation of the activities (Who is involved, how and why?)
 - iv. Insert flow-chart
 - e. Analysis of flow-chart and missing links
 - f. Evaluation strategies and practices
- 5) Other relevant policies with relation to health with a specific focus on overweight and obesity
 - a. Visions and objectives
 - b. Areas of action and implementation strategies
 - c. Mainstreaming and co-operation

1.

- 6) Health profile of the municipality
 - a. How has the health profile been created? (Has it been created by the municipality itself or has it been generated from national or regional profiles / surveys?)
 - b. Facts (Focus on inequality in health)
- 7) Conclusion on the basis of data and the conceptual paper (theory)
 - a. Is there consistency in what the municipality says and does?
- 8) Recommendations with references to the conceptual paper (theory driven analysis)
 - a. Politics and strategies
 - b. Planning
 - c. Implementation
 - d. Evaluation

Made within the PoHeFa project

August 2010

Edited 2nd May 2017 within the HEPCOM project